
South Glengarry Announces New Chief Administrative Officer

Lancaster, Ontario, August 29, 2024 – The Township of South Glengarry is pleased to announce the hiring of James (Jamie) Fawthrop as its new Chief Administrative Officer.

With a distinguished career in municipal management, Jamie brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record of leadership and administrative oversight. Since 2011, Jamie has progressed through several leadership and management roles with the City of Cornwall, where he most recently held the position of General Manager of Planning, Development and Recreation. Prior to his municipal career, Jamie worked as a Municipal Engineer with the Thompson Rosemount Group.

“On behalf of Council, I’m thrilled to welcome Jamie to our team,” said Mayor Lachlan McDonald, “Jamie is a proven, results-driven leader and Council looks forward to working with him as our new CAO as we look to the future and the implementation of our strategic vision and goals.”

As CAO, Jamie will lead the Township’s administrative team in the day-to-day operations of the Township, working closely with staff and Council to ensure the needs of South Glengarry’s residents are met efficiently and effectively.

Jamie shared, “I’m very excited and grateful for the opportunity to work with the Township’s talented and dedicated administrative team. I am honoured to be entrusted to lead this team to continue the delivery of high-quality municipal services to the residents of South Glengarry.”

“I’d like to extend thanks, on behalf of Council, to Fire Chief Dave Robertson, who has stepped up to fill the role of Acting CAO the past several months. We appreciate Dave’s hard work, leadership and commitment to our Township through this transition,” stated Mayor McDonald.

South Glengarry Council conducted a comprehensive search to fill the CAO position with support from the United Counties of SDG Human Resources Manager. Jamie will assume the role of CAO with South Glengarry on September 23, 2024.
